

Cities and Regions: New actors of change in Europe

Workshop in the European College of Cluny, France 26 - 30 August 2019

This workshop will help you understand how sub-national governments have emerged as key actors on the international scene and will give you tools to develop and coordinate your region's influence in Brussels and internationally.

Content:

- Learn the history of cooperation between cities and regions in Europe
- Understand how to improve the influence of your territory – concrete actions for cities and regions
- Meet the professionals who help territories develop their visibility and network

Learning objectives:

- Know the actors involved in developing the region's influence
- Learn how to develop an international territorial strategy

The Assembly of European Regions is the largest independent network of regions in wider Europe. The AER membership includes 150 regions from 28 European countries and 16 interregional organizations. Its mission is to promote regional democracy and subsidiarity, to be the voice of regions in Europe and develop interregional cooperation at the service of citizens. <https://aer.eu/>

Workshop cost:

950€ -

Cost includes accommodation & catering
Cost does not include travel expenses

Deadline for applications

15 July 2019

If interested please contact

contact@collegecluny.eu